SUNDAY REFLECTION ON STEWARDSHIP

As Jesus calls the apostles, He uses their own language by inviting them to be “fishers of people.” There is a deep spiritual insight that can be gleaned from this, namely, that Christ uses what we bring to the table to serve Him and the Church. This is the heart of stewardship, so let us reflect on our own gifts and graciously heed the call of Christ to become “fishers of people,” each in our own way.

Marriage Sunday, February 10/11

Calling all couples who were married here at Epiphany from 1974 onwards to kindly give us a call to honour you with special blessings on these dates. Please provide us with you Date of Marriage for our reference. Thank you.

Invito tutte le coppie che si sono sposate qui all'Epifania dal 1974 in poi a invitarci gentilmente ad onorarvi con benedizioni speciali in queste date. Ti preghiamo di fornirci la data del matrimonio come nostro riferimento. Grazie.

The package includes details of the cost for each option and the process to submit your registration form. Samples of how the options will be displayed in the booklet are posted in the front and back foyers.

VOCATION SEED

The call of the disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciples' response, which was immediate and complete; they leave everything and follow Jesus. Can we do less if we feel that God is calling us to the priesthood, religious life or diaconate? If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 or by email at vocations@archtoronto.org.

For Parish updates and announcements, please visit and subscribe to our website at epiphanyoffourlordsc.archtoronto.org
